

Cookie Policy

What are Cookies?

Cookies are files with small amounts of data, which may include an anonymous unique identifier. Cookies are sent to your browser from a website and stored on your computer's hard drive.

Types of Cookies

We use three types of cookies on our website:

1. Functional cookies
2. Analytical cookies
3. Non-essential or Tracking cookies

Functional Cookies

Functional session cookies and persistent cookies are necessary in order for you to use our website. These cookies can be deleted via your browser, but this may restrict the functions that you are able to carry out on our website.

Session cookies expire when you leave the website and are not stored on your computer and do not contain any personal data.

Persistent cookies last beyond your visit to our website.

Analytical Cookies

We use analytical cookies on our website. They enable us to track how popular our website is and to record visitor trends over time. These cookies do not contain any personal data but they do use your computer's IP address to determine where in the world you are accessing the website from, and to track your page visit within the site.

Non-essential or Tracking Cookies

These cookies are usually supplied by business partners and help us to filter out information that is not relevant to you. Our service providers use cookies and those cookies may be stored on your computer when you visit our website.

Further Information

For more information about cookies visit the Information Commissioner's website: www.ico.org.uk.
